

New Creation in Christ: A Study Guide

Key Truths

This study guide focuses on a series of scriptures that reveal truths about being a new creation in Christ. These truths can transform your life, helping you break free from insecurity and live with confidence and purpose. They emphasize that your identity doesn't come from your achievements or past mistakes but from your relationship with Jesus Christ.

Quiz

Instructions: Answer the following questions in 2-3 sentences each.

1. What does 2 Corinthians 5:17 tell us about being a new creation in Christ?
2. According to Ephesians 2:10, how does God view you?
3. What privilege do we receive when we become children of God, as stated in John 1:12?
4. How does 1 Peter 2:9 describe God's relationship with His people?
5. What freedom does Romans 8:1 declare for those who are in Christ Jesus?
6. According to 1 Corinthians 6:19-20, what is the significance of our bodies in relation to the Holy Spirit?
7. What does Colossians 1:13-14 tell us about redemption and forgiveness?
8. What is the role of a believer in the world according to 2 Corinthians 5:20?
9. Where does our true strength come from, as stated in Philippians 4:13?
10. How does Romans 8:37 describe the believer's position in the face of life's challenges?

Quiz Answer Key

1. 2 Corinthians 5:17 tells us that when we are in Christ, we become new creations. The old things, including our past mistakes and sins, pass away, and all things become new.
2. Ephesians 2:10 states that we are God's handiwork, His masterpiece, created with a purpose in Christ Jesus.
3. John 1:12 states that those who believe in Jesus are given the right to become children of God. This grants us a special relationship with Him and the privilege of belonging to His family.
4. 1 Peter 2:9 describes God's people as chosen, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, and God's special possession, set apart to declare His praises.
5. Romans 8:1 declares that there is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, signifying freedom from guilt and shame for past sins.
6. 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 highlights that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who dwells within us. We are therefore called to honour God with our bodies, treating them as sacred and valuable.
7. Colossians 1:13-14 states that we have redemption and forgiveness of sins through Jesus Christ. This means we have been bought back from the dominion of darkness and are now free from the penalty of sin.
8. 2 Corinthians 5:20 describes believers as ambassadors for Christ, representing Him and His Kingdom to the world. We are called to appeal to others to be reconciled to God.
9. Philippians 4:13 proclaims that our strength comes from Christ. Through Him, we can face any challenge and overcome any obstacle.
10. Romans 8:37 declares that we are more than conquerors through Christ who loves us. This means we are victorious in Him, regardless of the challenges we face.

Essay Questions

1. Discuss the transformative power of understanding your identity in Christ. How does this knowledge affect your daily life, relationships, and outlook on the future?
2. Explore the concept of being a "new creation" in Christ. What practical changes might this entail in your thoughts, actions, and habits?
3. Explain the significance of seeing yourself as God's handiwork. How does this perspective influence your self-worth, purpose, and approach to life's challenges?
4. Discuss the implications of being a child of God. How does this relationship with God shape your understanding of His love, your value, and your place in His family?
5. Analyze the concept of being an ambassador for Christ. What does this call to action look like in your everyday interactions, career choices, and engagement with the world around you?

Glossary of Key Terms

Scriptures: The sacred writings of Christianity, consisting of the Old and New Testaments.

Christ-centered identity: Understanding yourself primarily in terms of your relationship with Jesus Christ.

Spiritual identity scripture: Bible verses that specifically address who we are in Christ.

Identity transformation in Christ: The process of changing your self-perception to align with God's truth about who you are in Him.

God's Word on identity: The Bible's teachings regarding who we are in relation to God.

Biblical perspective on identity: Understanding oneself based on the truths revealed in the Bible.

Identity in Christ for believers: The unique identity and characteristics possessed by those who have faith in Jesus Christ.

Royal priesthood: The concept that believers in Christ are set apart to serve God and represent Him in the world.

Spiritual rebirth scriptures: Bible verses that describe the transformative experience of becoming a new creation in Christ.

Biblical identity in Christ: The understanding of oneself based on God's revelation in the Bible, particularly through the person and work of Jesus Christ.

Identity in Christ teachings: Teachings and principles that focus on the believer's new identity and position in Christ.

Biblical truth about identity: The unchanging and foundational truth about who we are as revealed in the Bible.

Secure identity in Christ: A firm and unshakeable understanding of oneself as loved, accepted, and valuable in the eyes of God because of Jesus Christ.