

Identity in Christ: A Study Guide

Quiz

Instructions: Answer the following questions in 2-3 sentences each.

1. What does it mean to be a "new creation in Christ" according to 2 Corinthians 5:17?
2. How does Ephesians 2:10 describe the believer's identity as God's "handiwork"?
3. What privilege does John 1:12 highlight regarding a believer's relationship with God?
4. According to 1 Peter 2:9, what distinguishes believers as a "chosen people"?
5. How does Romans 8:1 offer freedom from the burden of past mistakes?
6. Why does 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 refer to believers as "temples of the Holy Spirit"?
7. What is the significance of "redemption" and "forgiveness" in Colossians 1:13-14?
8. How does 2 Corinthians 5:20 describe the believer's responsibility in the world?
9. What source of strength does Philippians 4:13 emphasize for believers facing challenges?
10. How does Romans 8:37 portray the believer's position in the midst of life's battles?

Quiz Answer Key

- 1. Being a "new creation in Christ" signifies a radical transformation upon accepting Jesus. The old life of sin and shame is gone, replaced by a new life defined by God's grace and righteousness.
- 2. Ephesians 2:10 describes believers as God's "handiwork" or "masterpiece," emphasizing their intentional creation and purpose in God's plan. They are not random occurrences but carefully crafted beings with unique value and significance.
- 3. John 1:12 highlights the privilege of becoming a child of God through faith in Jesus. This signifies an intimate familial relationship with God, granting access to His love, care, and inheritance.
- 4. 1 Peter 2:9 identifies believers as a "chosen people," set apart by God for His purposes. This selection is not based on merit but on God's sovereign love and grace.
- 5. Romans 8:1 liberates believers from condemnation by declaring that there is no judgment for those in Christ Jesus. This signifies freedom from the guilt and shame of past sins, as Christ's sacrifice has atoned for them.
- 6. 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 refers to believers as "temples of the Holy Spirit" because God's Spirit dwells within them. This highlights the sacredness and value of the believer's body, urging them to live in a way that honours God.
- 7. In Colossians 1:13-14, "redemption" signifies being bought back from the dominion of darkness by Christ's sacrifice, while "forgiveness" denotes the complete erasure of sins. Together, they establish the believer's freedom from spiritual bondage and guilt.
- 8. 2 Corinthians 5:20 calls believers to be "ambassadors of Christ," representing Him and His message of reconciliation to the world. This responsibility entails reflecting Christ's love and grace in actions and words.
- 9. Philippians 4:13 emphasizes Christ as the source of strength for believers facing challenges. It assures believers that they can overcome any obstacle through Christ, who empowers them.
- 10. Romans 8:37 portrays believers as "more than conquerors" through Christ's love. This signifies not just surviving life's battles but overcoming them victoriously, with the assurance of God's unwavering support.

Essay Questions

- 1. How does the concept of "new creation" in Christ impact a believer's understanding of their past, present, and future?
- 2. Discuss the implications of being both "God's handiwork" and "a child of God" for a believer's sense of identity and purpose.
- 3. Explain how the truth of being "chosen and loved" by God combats feelings of inadequacy and rejection in a believer's life.
- 4. Analyse the connection between being "free from condemnation" and living as a "temple of the Holy Spirit" in the context of a believer's daily choices.
- 5. Describe the role of a believer as an "ambassador of Christ" in a world that often rejects or misunderstands the message of the Gospel.

Glossary of Key Terms

Ambassador of Christ: A believer representing Jesus and His message of reconciliation to the world.

Chosen People: Believers set apart by God for His purposes, not based on merit but on His sovereign love and grace.

Christ-Centered Identity: A believer's understanding of themselves based on their relationship with Jesus Christ, as defined by God's Word.

Free From Condemnation: The state of being liberated from judgment for past sins due to Christ's atoning sacrifice.

God's Handiwork: A metaphorical description of believers as God's carefully crafted creations, emphasizing their unique value and purpose.

New Creation in Christ: The radical transformation of a believer's life upon accepting Jesus, characterized by a shift from sin to righteousness.

Redemption: The act of Christ buying back believers from spiritual bondage through His sacrifice, restoring them to a right relationship with God.

Royal Priesthood: A designation for believers, highlighting their privileged role in serving God and proclaiming His praises.

Temple of the Holy Spirit: A metaphor describing believers as the dwelling place of God's Spirit, emphasizing their sacredness and value.

Victorious in Christ: The believer's position of triumph over life's challenges through Christ's power, assured of ultimate victory in Him.